LAW 12 – ALTERNATE – UNIT 5

Read the articles on policing, and watch the compilation of scenes from Cops.

1) List things you've learned about policing, with some details explaining what surprised you, shocked you, or confirmed what you already knew.

2) Give a summary on the profile of a police officer. What sort of person does this job attract? Break down the personality traits. Who shouldn't do this job?

Submit via MyEd prior to the test period, as a word document. If it's not in by then, you write the unit test. There are caps on your score, depending on how close to the test date you submit it.

The key to an exceptional response is putting some of yourself in it. I want to know more than the fact that you've read/watched things, but that you connected with it, made associations, had genuine surprise/shock/anger/empathy etc. I want to know what you FELT and if it changed how you THINK.

Scoring Guide
(ie: How to get the score you want):

- Evidence that you went through the content and paid attention. There's a list of 5-10 things you are responding to in some way, and your profile of a cop is good. There may be some linkages among content, but not much. Length of response is ¾ - 1 page or more on each section. There's some of you in there, but not in depth yet. (60-70% max)

- Evidence that you went through the content and paid close attention. There's a list of 8-10+ things you are responding to or exploring in your profile, and that's presented in a good 1.5 – 2 pages here at least. Some personal reflection and reaction is clearly in here as well, and your own opinion and commentary can be seen. (71-85% max)

- The same as the one above, but there's definite evidence in the form of quotes or phrases used, as you make your linkages and points. There's a good 2-4 pages of content here, and I can see your own thought processes and awareness in it. Perhaps there is even a little research sprinkled in, backing up your conclusions and commentary. (86-100%)
